STATEMENT OF EVERGLADES PIPE LINE COMPANY L.P. CONCERNING JET FUEL PIPELINE SUPPLYING MIAMI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

A news article posted in the online version of the Miami Herald (www.miamiherald.com River Cities Gazette section) on February 21, 2013 stated the headline: "Jet-fuel pipeline project has Miami Springs crying foul".

Everglades Pipe Line Company, L.P., an operating subsidiary of Buckeye Partners, L.P., wishes to announce that a feasibility assessment of potential options to improve service delivery to the Miami International Airport has been completed.

Everglades Pipe Line Company L.P. has made a decision that a pipeline relocation at the Miami Springs location is no longer an option under consideration.

Buckeye Partners, L.P. (NYSE: BPL) is a publicly traded master limited partnership that owns and operates one of the largest independent liquid petroleum products pipeline systems in the United States in terms of volumes delivered, with approximately 6,000 miles of pipeline. Buckeye also owns approximately 100 liquid petroleum products terminals with aggregate storage capacity of over 70 million barrels. In addition, Buckeye operates and/or maintains third-party pipelines under agreements with major oil and gas and chemical companies, owns a high-performance natural gas storage facility in Northern California, and markets liquid petroleum products in certain regions served by its pipeline and terminal operations. Buckeye's flagship marine terminal in The Bahamas, BORCO, is one of the largest crude oil and petroleum products storage facilities in the world, serving the international markets as a premier global logistics hub.
